ABSTRACT

The main aim of this research was to examine the relationship on the factors contributing to the employee engagement among Generation Y, namely; job characteristics, reward and recognition, and work-life balance. The study focused at the employee engagement as an essential and critical aspect in determining and affecting sustainability and success of the company, as it is much relies on its main asset that is the employees. Data were gathered using questionnaires from the respondents who were generation Y employees in the PC Company located at Kuala Lumpur City Centre (KLCC). This study adopted SSPS in analyzing data. The results discovered that job characteristics, reward and recognition, and work-life balance were significantly correlated and contributed to the employee engagement. The study will also benefit the human resource practitioners theoretically and practically by providing direction and suggestions in formulating, designing and implementing the right policies, reward and recognition package and job design for PC Company. Likewise, limitation and recommendations for future research direction were also deliberated in this study.

Keywords: Employee Engagement, Job Characteristics, Reward and Recognition, Work-life Balance
Tujuan utama kajian ini adalah untuk mengkaji hubungan faktor-faktor yang menyumbang kepada penglibatan pekerja di kalangan Generasi Y, iaitu; sifat kerja, ganjaran dan pengiktirafan, dan imbangan kehidupan kerja. Kajian memfokus kepada penglibatan pekerja sebagai satu aspek penting dan kritikal dalam menentukan dan mempengaruhi kelestarian dan kejayaan syarikat, kerana ianya banyak bergantung kepada aset utamanya iaitu pekerja. Data dikumpulkan dengan menggunakan soal selidik daripada responden yang merupakan pekerja generasi Y di Syarikat PC yang terletak di Kuala Lumpur City Centre (KLCC). Kajian ini menggunakan SSPS dalam menganalisis data. Dapatan kajian mendapati bahawa sifat kerja, ganjaran dan pengiktirafan, dan keseimbangan kehidupan kerja memang mempunyai hubungan korelasi yang signifikan dan menyumbang kepada penglibatan pekerja. Kajian ini juga akan memberi manfaat kepada pengamal sumber manusia secara teori dan praktikal dalam merangka, merekabentuk dan melaksanakan polisi-polisi yang betul, pakej ganjaran dan pengiktirafan dan rekabentuk kerja yang sewajarnya bagi Syarikat PC. Begitu juga, limitasi dan cadangan untuk kajian akan datang juga telah dibincangkan dalam kajian ini.

Kata kunci: Penglibatan Pekerja, Sifat Kerja, Ganjaran dan Pengiktirafan, Imbangan Kehidupan Kerja.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

‘In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious and The Most Merciful, and peace be upon our Greatest Prophet Muhammad S.A.W’.

First and foremost, I am taking this opportunity to express my gratitude and gratefulness to Dr. Wan Shakizah binti Wan Mohd. Noor, who taught me well the Compensation and Benefits subject and subsequently became my dissertation/project paper supervisor. I am thankful for her aspiring guidance, continuous support, friendly advice, and invaluably constructive criticism throughout my learning journey. In the searching of enlightenment for some contemporary human resources issues, he constantly shares his thoughts which are always outside the box. May Allah continues grant her a wisdom and strength.

I also would like to express my appreciation to the management of PC Company for giving me the approval to conduct study at their organization. Without the permission this study will not be possible. A very heart full thanks to my dearest husband, Norhaizan and my beloved mom, Puan Hajjah Asmah for their endless love, caring, sacrifices, understanding, and supports. They were the one who inspired me to start my Master Degree journey. They always took over my duties at home when I need to focus on my studies. This dissertation/project paper work is made especially for them. To both of my kids, Ain and Aiman who were always encourage and understand me, makes me proud of them and feel motivated to complete my studies on time and to be a good example to them. May Allah blesses them the wisdoms to achieve all their future undertakings.

CHAPTER 1
INTRODUCTION

1.1 Introduction

This research undertakes a study about job characteristics, reward and recognitions as well as work-life balance toward employee engagement among the Generation Y in the PC Company located at Kuala Lumpur City Centre (KLCC), Malaysia. The need in examining these factors that could affect the employee engagement is crucial for organizational success especially in PC Company. Thus, this chapter provides an overview of the thesis, sets the context of the research with respect to the job characteristics, reward and recognitions, work-life balance and also employee engagement. This was followed by focus of the research and significance of the research which set the scope of the study.

1.2 Background of the Study

The business arena is becoming increasingly competitive and organisations are developing strategies to help establish competitive advantage. In their quest to gain an edge over their competitors, organisations realise the need to shower attention upon the executors of the organisational strategies, which is the employees.

Employee engagement refers to corporate individual members’ attachment to their roles (Kahn, 1990). In 1992, Kahn further described employee engagement as behavioural drive into a mental state to be present (Khan, 1992). According to May, Gilson, and Harter
